Looks like a really good start.

Only a couple of points where I can add specificity -

- Movieflix -- These guys should be up before the Christmas season. I'll introduce you via email and you can call them when you can.
- Streaming Media Technologies -- call Jason Turner and set up a time to go tour their facility in Seattle. As I've said, I think very highly of these guys but I'd like your feedback on them especially as it comes to evaluating their facilities. Jason's contact info is:

Curtis and James,

Attached is my rough draft of objectives for the next year on film deployment projects.

Any comments would be greatly appreciated. I'm meeting with John tomorrow to go over it.

Thanks,
Dan
